1.2 This protocol will be kept under review and the list updated annually in February.

1.3 Plans will only be implemented following an official announcement. Upon notification of an official announcement, the Clerk will advise all members that the protocol is to be implemented. The Clerk will also liaise with the Reverend at St Andrews Church and the website updated to detail what the Council is planning with regards to floral tributes, book of condolence and flag flying.

2.0 FLAG FLYING

2.1 Upon receiving notification of the death of a senior figure (as listed above), the Parish Clerk will instruct that the flag at the Parish Hall be lowered to half-mast.

2.2 For any other prominent figures or local holder of high office, the flag should fly at half-mast only on the day of death and the day of the funeral.

2.3 In the event of a local or national disaster, the Parish Clerk, after deliberation with the Chair of the Council, will instruct that the flag at the Parish Hall be lowered to half-mast if deemed appropriate.

2.4 Flags should be flown at half-mast on the following occasions:

- a. From the announcement of the death until the funeral of the Sovereign, except on Proclamation Day when flags are flown at full-mast following the proclamation.
- b. From the announcement of the death until the funeral of a member of the Royal Family styled 'Royal Highness', subject to special commands from the Sovereign in each case.
- c. On the day of the announcement of the death and on the day of the funeral of other members of the Royal Family, subject to special commands from the Sovereign in each case.
- d. The funerals of foreign Rulers, subject to special commands from the Sovereign in each case.
- e. The funerals of Prime Ministers and ex-Prime Ministers of the United Kingdom, subject to special commands from the Sovereign in each case.
- f. The funerals of First Ministers and ex-First Ministers of Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland, subject to special commands from the Sovereign in each case. Unless otherwise commanded by the Sovereign, this only applies to flags in their respective countries.
- g. Any other occasions where the Sovereign has given a special command.

2.5 Full details for on the correct way to fly flags at half-mast is given on the website of the Flag Institute - www.flaginstitute.org It is important that the guidance given by the Flag Institute is strictly adhered to.

2.6 Half-mast means the flag is flown two-thirds of the way up the flagpole, with at least the height of the flag between the top of the flag and the top of the flagpole. Flags cannot be flown at half-mast on poles that are more than 45° from the vertical, but a mourning cravat can be used instead (see below).

2.7 When a flag is to be flown at half-mast, it should first be raised all the way to the top of the mast, allowed to remain there for a second and then be lowered to the half-mast position. When it is being lowered from half-mast, it should again be raised to the top of the mast for a second before being fully lowered.
